

Asking For A Friend: Week 1

<sup>33</sup> I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world.”
John 16:33

Start Talking:

- Which person in your life do you trust the most? Who always “has your back?” Why do you think that is?

Start Sharing: If God is so good, how can life be so bad? How would you answer this question?

- Embrace God’s Past Providence: Genesis 50:20
How have you seen God’s protection in the past?
- Embrace God’s Present People: Hebrews 10:25
What are the qualities of a person that has your back?
- Embrace God’s Future Plan: 2 Peter 3:9, Romans 12:21
How can you overcome evil with good, daily?

Start Doing:

- Check out the Brevard Community Church Library Titled “Asking For A Friend” on Right Now Media App. (Click in the upper left corner once you’ve opened the app, and click on “Brevard Community Church”)
- Consider a few things you can do with the people in your group to overcome evil with good.
- Take 45 minutes and watch JOB THE MOVIE vimeo.com/63574987

Start Praying:

Thank God for the people that He has placed in your life. Praise the goodness of God! • Ask Him for the wisdom to make good choices and to influence others to do the same. • Pray that God helps you to stay heaven focused always . . . especially in times of hardship.

More Scripture:

Psalms 46:1-11; Ecclesiastes 4:7-12; Romans 5:1-8

Remember: Nothing can happen to you that has not been Father filtered.

Don’t let the conversation stop. Keep talking it over with others in a GROUP.
