Week 4: YOUR TROUBLES ARE MY TROUBLES

Icebreaker Question

Would you rather have to wear a toga every day for a year or eat one pound of crickets in a day? Why?

This Week's Big Questions

What is fair?

The Verse

Micah 6:8 NIRV

"The Lord has shown you what is good. He has told you what He requires of you. You must treat people fairly. You must love other faithfully. And you must be very careful to live the way your God wants you to."

Choose questions for your kids.

1. What stuck out to you from today's message?
2. If you had to give a rough estimate, how many times in your life have you said, "That's not fair"? Why do you think we say that phrase so much?
3. How would you describe what "fair" means?
4. Why do you think it takes courage to love your neighbor and to make someone else's troubles your troubles?
5. Do you notice injustice? Where you see injustice at school, at home, or in the world? What can you do about those injustices?
6. Ready Micah 6:8 NIRV. What does it look like to treat everyone around you fairly? How can you do that?
7. Why do you think God wants us to treat others fairly? What's the point?
8. If you're honest, are you more focused on what's fair for you or what's fair for others? How can you start having the courage to focus on what's fair for others?

Prayer: Talk about some prayer requests and then pray together.
